

National Champion -- 2009 SCCA B-Stock

Photo of SFR's Bryan Heitkotter, 2009 National Champion in Zach Heidepriem's 2005 Mazda RX-8

5 years running the RX-8 has been the car to have in the B-Stock SCCA Solo class, winning all National Championship titles from 2005 through 2009.

Competitive Motorsports Does Not Have To Mean A Big Budget, But It Does Mean Big Fun!

The costs for the 4d-SPORT.com RX-8 here on display (Street Legal/Daily Driver)

2004 Mazda RX-8 – current Kelly Blue Book value $10,000 - $11,500

- incl. 6-Speed Sport Package with limited-slip differential

Configuration for SCCA Solo (autocross) Stock Class competition ~ $3,600 total

- Competition tires (DOT-R ~ $1200) on stock size wheels (~$1600) = $2,800
- Aggressive wheel alignment (maximum front camber) ~ $200
- Adjustable shock absorbers ~ $600

Total Car Cost ~ $15,000

Just add driver and begin skill development, the fun part!!!

